The Wineskin

PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY VOL. IX, NO. 15, JANUARY 23, 1970

WEEK OF JANUARY 26-31

Dr. James I. McCord has announced the appointment of James Hastings Nichols as Academic Dean of Princeton Theological Seminary. Dr. Nichols, a member of the Seminary Faculty since 1962, will assume his new responsibilities with the opening of the second semester on January 28.

Dr. Nichols, who is Professor of Modern European Church History, has served as Chairman of the Student-Faculty Curriculum Review Committee. He has also been Director of Doctoral Studies and will continue in that post for the remainder of this academic year, at the end of which time a new Director will be appointed.

Dr. James F. Armstrong, Associate Professor of Old Testament and Registrar, will head the Office of Instruction during the second semester of the current academic year. His title will be Director of Professional Studies.

Professor W. J. Beeners, who has been serving as Dean of Instruction, will begin a one-semester sabbatical leave on January 28. It is his first sabbatical since joining the Faculty of the Seminary in 1949.

Thursday, January 29

Organ Recital. Richard E. Frey, Organist, Eastern Baptist Seminary, where he is also Director of Music. Miller Chapel, 1:35 - 2:05 P.M. Mr. Frey holds a Bachelor of Music degree from Westminster Choir College and a Master of Music degree from Boston University. He is a candidate for the Master of Arts degree at Eastern Baptist Seminary in the Class of 1970. His program includes:

The Six Schübler Chorale Preludes by Bach: Sleepers Awake! A Voice Is Calling; O Whither Shall I Flee; If Thou but Suffer God to Guide Thee; My Soul Doth Magnify the Lord; Lord Jesus Christ, with Us Abide; Comest Thou Now, Jesus, from Heaven to Earth? He will also present Bach's Prelude and Fugue in A Minor.

The program is open to the public, without charge.

Editor pro tem.: Cara Davis Smith, Public Relations Assistant

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2021 with funding from Princeton Theological Seminary Library

https://archive.org/details/wineskin9152unse

The Wineskin

RINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY VOL. IX, NO. 16, January 30, 1970

WEEK OF FEBRUARY 2-8

ONDAY, FEBRUARY 2

he 1970 Annie Kinkead Warfield Lectures egin. Under the general topic "Faith eeking Understanding: A New Approach," r. John Edwin Smith, Professor of hilosophy and Director of Graduate Studies or the Department of Philosophy of Yale niversity will speak to the seminary ommunity and to the general public. Dr. mith is a graduate of Columbia University nd of Union Theological Seminary, with a h.D. from Columbia. His books include The Spirit of American Philosophy, " Reason and God" and "Religion and mpiricism." The first lecture is entitled "The Classical Meaning of 'Faith eeking Understanding'" and will be elivered in Miller Chapel. 7:45 P.M.

UESDAY, FEBRUARY 3

hapel: The Reverend Harold Thomas, reaching. Service of Holy Communion ith Dr. James McCord, Celebrant. 10:00 A.M.

Conquest of Inner Space," a discussion led y Mr. Lambert Dolphin, Jr., retired research hysicist presently engaged in full time peaking, counseling and writing. He will xplore the relevance of faith in the resent scientific age of change and rapid levelopment. Presented under the auspices f the Special Speakers committee of the tudent Association. Stevenson Lounge, ampus Center. 1:30 P.M.

ontinuation of the Annie Kinkead Warfield ectures. "A New Approach to Understanding: nalogia Experientiae." Miller Chapel. :45 P.M. "Man and the Circular redicament." Miller Chapel. 7:45 P.M.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4

Chapel: Mr. R. Scott Sullender and Mr. William Carlton, officers of the Senior Class. 10:00 A.M.

Continuation of the Annie Kinkead Warfield Lectures. "God as Transcending Center of Intention." Miller Chapel. 1:45 P.M. "Christ as Concrete Manifestation of the Center." Miller Chapel. 7:45 P.M.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 5

Chapel: Mr. Charles Bartow and Mr. Frank Dunn. 10:00 A.M.

Piano Concert. Mr. Frank N. Smalling, pianist and composer, performs his original compositions: "The Mystic," "Fanfare," and "American Youth Culture During the 1960's." Concert presented in honor of retiring Professor of Music David Hugh Jones. Auditorium, Campus Center. 1:35 P.M.

Conclusion of Annie Kinkhead Warfield Lectures. "The Beloved Community as Locus of Transforming Power." Miller Chapel. 7:45 P.M.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6

Chapel: Mr. Robert Mathewson, Th.D. student. 10:00 A.M.

"Of Mice And Men," by John Steinbeck, McCarter Theatre. 8:30 P.M.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 7

"The Firebugs," by Swiss playwright Max Frisch. McCarter Theatre. 8:30 P.M.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 8

University Chapel: Dr. Carl Fields, preaching. 10:00 A.M.

The Princeton Seminary Touring Male Choir will sing in the Presbyterian Church in Fanwood, N.J., at 9:00 and 11:00 A.M., and in the Mount Holly, N.J., First Presbyterian Church at 4:00 P.M. and at Trinity Presbyterian Church of East Brunswick, N.J., at 7:30 P.M.

The Reverend Dr. Robert G. Andrus will be in Speer Library at 4:00 P.M., FRIDAY, JANUARY 30. Faculty and students interested in the Adlai E. Stevenson papers on display in the main hall, which Dr. Andrus has presented to the Seminary, are invited to meet Dr. Andrus at this time and discuss the papers with him.

NOTICES

THE FAYETTE SINGING BOYS from Chalk Hill, Pa., and their conductor David L. Craig, will appear at the Westminster Choir College on Tuesday evening, February 3. 8:00 P.M.

SUMMER JOB POSSIBILITIES are beginning to come into the Field Education Office. Students interested in learning about these opportunities should see Ken Smith in the Field Education Office beginning the first of February. There are also a few weekend church jobs for the second semester. Students interested in these positions may contact any member of the Department of Field Education.

GROUP TRAINING OPPORTUNITY: There are a limited number of openings for students interested in an introductory exposure to sensitivity training through the use of "Encounter tapes." This program, in use in churches, is being made available through the M.R.E. and the B.D. Field Education Offices as non-credit elective which will involve participants during the class schedule at a time to be arranged for two-hour meetings, twice a week for five weeks. Those wishing to participate may speak with Miss Gardner in the Christian Education Department or Dr. Van Dyck in the Field Education Office.

FELLOWSHIP GROUPS: Between 50 and 75 people are now involved in small groups meeting weekly to share their concerns, faith, ideas and questions with each other. Meaningful relationships have developed as well as a very real learning experience. Any students interested should contact Will Ackles at 924-9322.

STUDENTS INTERESTED IN SENSITIVITY TRAINING OR THERAPY GROUPS, who have not yet contacted Will Ackles concerning their desire to become involved in this program, should do so this week.

GYM LOCKERS: All Students who desire to keep their locker in the seminary gymnasium must print their names on the strip of paper provided on the front of each locker. On February 13, locks will be cut off from all unlabeled lockers.

SPEER LIBRARY has been able to borrow a large collection of newspaper clippings describing the responses of churches to the BLACK MANIFESTO, reparations, and similar concerns. The loan period is only two weeks after which we will have to return the collection to the lending library. If you would like to review this collection, please inquire at the Circulation Desk. The library has also received a collection of materials favoring ABORTION from the Association for the Study of Abortion, Inc., to balance the view of the materials previously acquired from the New Jersey Right to Life Committee. To consult this material, please see Mr. Wittig or Mr. Irvine.

The Wineskin

PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY VOL. IX, NO. 17, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1970

NATIONAL NEGRO HISTORY WEEK begins Sunday, February 8, with Race Relations Sunday, includes Abraham Lincoln's birthday on Thursday, and leads into National Brotherhood Week, February 16-20. Princeton Theological Seminary is using National Negro History Week to learn a whole genre of worship expression with which the white Church is on the whole unfamiliar. Your attention is invited to the service on Ash Wednesday evening. This service arises out of the Black experience as it was explained by Professor Hanson in the last issue of "Social Progress."

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 9

Mr. Arichie L. Richmond, assistant director of Protestant Relationships Service, Boy Scouts of America, will be on campus. Film presentation on the relationship between Scouting and the Church. Discussion on the long range program of the B.S.A., BOYPOWER '76, which seeks to make Scouting more relevant to disadvantaged boys. Information about summer jobs as chaplains in Scout camps. Stevenson Lounge, Campus Center. 7:00 P.M.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10

Chapel: Jon T. Chapman and John C. Poling: Dialogue. 10:00 A.M.

Contemporary Choral Concertium, with Clyde Tipton '56 of the Princeton Seminary Choir, and Lou Hooker '58 of the Fairleigh Dickinson University Choir Playhouse. Westminster Choir College. 6:30 P.M.

Conversations in the Midst of a Crisis, Dr. Dowey and Geddes Hanson. Sponsored by the Wives' Course. Husbands invited to attend. Stevenson Lounge, Campus Center. 7:45 P.M.

The Titicut Follies, contraversial documentary film of life within the walls of a state institution for the criminally insane. Filmed by Frederick Wiseman at the state prison hospital in Bridgewater, Mass. McCarter Theatre. 8:00 P.M.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11

Extended Chapel - Dr. William H. Felmeth, Minister of the Presbyterian Church of Basking Ridge, New Jersey. "The Way of the Cross." 10:00 A.M.

ASH WEDNESDAY EVENING SERVICE - The Reverend O. R. Lyons, Pastor of St. Paul's African Methodist Episcopal Church of Zion, Trenton, preaching. The Saint Paul's AME Church of Zion Choir will sing. Mr. Dennis Alexander (nine years old) will be guest soloist. 8:00 P.M. Miller Chapel.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12

Chapel: Larry Dixon, Leader. 10:00 A.M.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13

Chapel: Willie Jackson, Reader. 10:00 A.M.

Much Ado About Nothing, William Shakespeare. McCarter Theatre. 8:30 P.M.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14

Last showing of The Firebugs.
McCarter Theatre. 8:30 P.M.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 15

Princeton University Chapel: Rev. George Mather, graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary, preaching. 11 A.M.

The Princeton Seminary Touring Choir will sing at the Memorial Presbyterian Church in Snow Hill, Md., at 11:00 A.M. and in the Presbyterian Church of Easton, Md., at 4:00 P.M.

NOTICE

The Lay Renewal Committee of the Student Association is preparing a unique opportunity to interact with a team of outstanding men on the subject of Lay Renewal - a strategy for the seventies. It involves the people of God in the work of God. Seminary students are urged to bring field work groups, supervisors and interested laymen. The week long program is entitled "Power to the People." It includes dynamic leadership personalities such as Bruce Larson, Ralph Osborne, Homer Goddard, Dick Halverson, Lloyd Ogilvie and Tom Skinner. An issue of Viewpoint is to be dedicated to the topic of this lay renewal activity in the churches, with various ministers contributing their perspactives and experiences. This special issue welcomes PTS student opinion and views and any person wishing to express same should leave his contribution in Chuck Lake's box in the basement of Hodge Hall before February 13. Because the program runs from February 23 through the 27th, plans should now be made for participation. Wives are encouraged to attend. For further information contact Joel Crosby, Alan Chessman or Will Ackles.

All seminary gym lockers must be properly identified by writing the name of the occupant in the space provided. Locks without labels will be cut off February 13th.

WINESKIN notices are due by noon on the Tuesday preceding the week of the activity. Contributions should be placed in the appropriate box in the basement of Stuart Hall. Editor: Jack S. Miller. 921-6752.

The Wineskin

PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY VOL. IX, NO. 18, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1970

FEBRUARY 16 - 22

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 16

Rev. C.K. Norville will be on campus to interview students for a summer position as Protestant Chaplain at Camp Broad Creek at Maryland. This 3,000 acre camp serves as camping center for the Baltimore Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America. More than 8,000 scouts participate in the summer program. Interested students should contact Ken Smith in the Field Education Office, Hodge Hall.

Continuation of a series called Time Out For Man, sponsored by the National Humanities Series developed by the Woodrow Wilson Foundation of Princeton and aimed at exploring what it is to be human. Man and his private sphere is the theme of a special program on this day, dealing with the fundamental human relationships among families and between friends, and will examine the themes of loneliness, loyalty, and love, using the media of music, literature, and the visual arts. Playhouse of Westminster Choir College. 8:00 P.M.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 17

Chapel: Chaplain George Fitzgerald, Princeton Hospital. 10:00 A.M.

Wives' Course, with Dr. Dowey and Geddes Hanson in "Conversations in the midst of a crisis." Husbands are welcome. Stevenson Lounge, Campus Center. 7:45 P.M.

Princeton debut of young American Pianist, Andre Watts, performing Scarlatti, Mozart, Chopin and Liszt. McCarter Theatre. 8:30 P.M.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18

Chapel: Princeton Theological Seminary Touring Choir. Dr. David Hugh Jones, Conducting. 10:00 A.M.

Sidney Lumet's 1967 comedy film Bye Bye Braverman. Story of a group of Jewish intellectuals who travel to Brooklyn. McCarter Theatre. 8:00 P.M.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19

Chapel: Joel Crosby and Alan Chessman. 10:00 A.M.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20

Chapel: Will Ackles and Chuck Lake. 10:00 A.M

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 22

University Chapel: Dean Ernest Gordon, preaching. 11:00 A.M.

The Princeton Seminary Touring Choir will sing in the First Presbyterian Church of Springfield Gardens, New York at 11:00 A.M. and in the New Hyde Park Presbyterian Church at 4:00 P.M. and in the Morrisania Presbyterian Church in New York City at 7:00 P.M.

NOTICE

Students in all degree programs are encouraged to submit papers for publication in DIMENSION Papers should be twenty five pages or less and may be essays, sermons, or term papers. Poetry will be considered. Papers should be left at the switchboard for John Mulder, % THEOLOGY TODAY. Deadline for the next issue is February 25.

Plan now to have your field work supervisor take you to the Community Banquet on Tuesday, February 24 at the Princeton Inn. This is a part of the week-long program called "Power to the People." Tickets for the banquet are $5.00. For more information, contact Les Malakian.

All notices intended for publication in WINESKIN should be left in the appropriate box in the basement of Stuart Hall no later than noon on the Tuesday preceding the week of the event. Editor: Jack S. Miller.

The Wineskin

INCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY VOL. IX, ISSUE NO. 19, FEBRUARY 27, 1970

This is World Church Week, culminating in World Day of Prayer on Friday, March 6. Consequently, all Chapel services for this celebration have been planned by the International Students of Princeton Tehological Seminary.

MARCH 2 - 8

NDAY, MARCH 2

glish lutenist and guitarist, Julian eam, in concert. McCarter Theatre. 30 P.M.

ESDAY, MARCH 3

apel: Tunji Abiona, Max Chigwida d Timothy Njoya. 10:00 A.M.

rtin Luther King Lectureship series, to delivered by Dr. Charles Long, ofessor of History of Religions at the iversity of Chicago. Miller Chapel 30 P.M.

ves' course, with Dr. Dowey and Geddes nson in "Conversations in the midst of Crisis." Husbands invited. Stevenson unge, Campus Center. 7:45 P.M.

DNESDAY, MARCH 4

apel: Frank Smalling, Stan Wood d Gary Brenner. 10:00 A.M.

ntinuation of the Martin Luther King ctures, with Dr. Long. Miller Chapel. 30 P.M.

URSDAY, MARCH 5

apel: Csaba Orosz, Aurel Bucalae and lio Bilion. 10:00 A.M.

Bibliographical Seminar: A review and discussion of significant tools for general Biblical studies, including distribution and discussion of a partially annotated bibliography. Preliminary discussion will center on a schematic approach to a hypothetical research problem: "How May The Bible Inform Our Understanding Of Reparations?" Conducted by the reference staff of the Library. Room 201, Speer Library. 7-9 P.M.

Volleyball for all students, staff, faculty and administration. Seminary Gym. 7:00 P.M.

Service of Holy Communion according to the usage of the CHURCH OF SOUTH INDIA. Rev. K.C. Abraham of that church will lead the service, assisted by international students. Miller Chapel. 7:45 P.M.

FRIDAY, MARCH 6

Chapel: Celebration of Diwala (Festival of Lights). K.C. Abraham, David Rodriguez and Mattheus Suitela. 10:00 A.M.

SUNDAY, MARCH 8

University Chapel: Dean Ernest Gordon, preaching. 11:00 A.M.

The Princeton Seminary Touring Choir will sing in the First Presbyterian Church of Greenport, L.I., at 11:00 A.M., and in the Presbyterian Church of Middle Island, L.I., at 4:00 P.M.

NOTICE

Parents, the Presbyterian Nursery School is accepting registration now for September, 1970. There are limited openings in the 2, 3 and 4 year old classes. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Dudley Saville, Registrar. Phone: 921-8379, address: 24 Western Way.

The Student Commons is now running in the red. Theft and forgetfulness in payment is the basic reason for this condition. We ask that you help us in alleviating this problematical situation before closure is necessary.

The Wineskin

PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY VOL. IX, ISSUE NO. 20, MARCH 6, 1970

MARCH 9 - 15

MONDAY, MARCH 9

Rev. Frank Bates of Southminster Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, will speak to the Christian Education of Youth Class about Youth Club, Inc., a program designed for the church's ministry to adolescents. The class will be evaluating the program in subsequent sessions. This discussion is open to anyone interested in the program, its philosophical and theological foundations, its design and educational strategies. Auditorium, Campus Center. 8:40 - 10:30 P.M.

"The New Testament - Revelation, History and Authority." Dr. W.D. Davies, Ivey Professor of Advanced Studies in New Testament and Christian Origins, Duke University Divinity School. Formerly with Princeton University and Union Seminary, Dr. Davies has been at Duke since 1966. He is known for his use of Rabbinical sources in illustrating the New Testament, and is the author of such noted works as PAUL AND RABBINIC JUDAISM, THE SETTING OF THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT, INVITATION TO THE NEW TESTAMENT, and INTRODUCTION TO PHARISAISM. Main Lounge, Campus Center. 1:30 P.M. (Editor's note: This time the "Winepress" is correct.)

TUESDAY, MARCH 10

Chapel: Dr. Edward A. Dowey, Jr.

Special discussion of ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION, presented by a team of psychiatrists and social workers from the New York Hospital in White Plains, N.Y. Among those to be present are Dr. David Brown, Dr. Edward Steelye, Mrs. Charlotte Smith and Dr. and Mrs. Albert Brown-Mayers. This hospital has developed an exceptional program, and anyone interested in this particular subject is encouraged to attend. Main Lounge, Campus Center. 7:30 P.M.

Wives' Course: "Conversations in the Midst of Crisis," with Dr. Dowey and Geddes Hanson. Husbands are welcome. Stevenson Lounge, Campus Center. 7:45 P.M.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 11

Chapel: Eastern Orthodox Office. Stephen Kyriacou, Harry Batuyios, John Hatherley.

Psychological Tests to be administered at 1:30 P.M. in Room 5, Stuart Hall. (See Note.)

Robe Showing. Stevenson Lounge, Campus Center. 9:00 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.

THURSDAY, MARCH 12

Chapel: Eastern Orthodox Office. Stephen Kyriacou, Harry Batuyios, John Hatherley.

FRIDAY, MARCH 13

Chapel: Special youth presentation. Thirty five high school students from the Mount Kisco Presbyterian Church will share their own creative worship service of music, poetry and drama. This is part of a three day tour for this group and for their unique presentation. Led by Gregory Gibson.

Ah, Wilderness. Eugene O'Neill. McCarter Theatre. 8"30 P.M.

SATURDAY, MARCH 14

Ah, Wilderness. Eugene O'Neill. McCarter Theatre. 8:30 P.M.

SUNDAY, MARCH 15

University Chapel: Service of Music and Dean Ernest Gordon. 11:00 A.M.

The Princeton Seminary Touring Male Choir will sing in the Second Presbyterian Church of Newark, New Jersey at 11:00 A.M., and in the First Presbyterian Church of East Williamsburgh, New York, at 4:00 P.M.

NOTICE

The Office of Instruction will be administering the following Psychological Tests on Wednesday, March 11, 1970 at 1:30 P.M., Room 5, Stuart Hall: Logical Reasoning, Verbal Comprehension, and Myers-Briggs. Anyone wishing to take any or all of these tests simply come to Room 5.

Field Education positions for 1970-1971 are posted in the Field Education Office, Room 101, Hodge Hall. Come in to review the listings, study job descriptions and sign up for interviews with pastor-supervisors on campus.

Special Sale at the Theological Book Agency. Stimulating new youth material in the Youth Forum Series:

Andrew M. Greeley	YOUTH ASKS, DOES GOD STILL SPEAK?
Reuel Howe	YOUTH CONSIDERS PERSONAL MOODS.
Martin Marty	YOUTH CONSIDERS "DO IT YOURSELF" RELIGION
Randolph C. Miller	YOUTH CONSIDERS PARENTS AS PEOPLE
D.T. Niles	YOUTH ASKS WHAT'S LIFE FOR

Retail Price - $1.50
TBA Price - $1.20

All announcements intended for publication in WINESKIN should be deposited in the appropriate box in the basement of Stuart Hall no later than the Tuesday noon preceding the week of the activity. Editor: Jack S. Miller. 921-6752.

The Wineskin

Princeton Theological Seminary VOL. IX, ISSUE NO. 21, MARCH 20, 1970

MARCH 23 - 29
SPRING VACATION

NOTICES

Belgian pianist Pierre Huybregts will give his American debut recital at 8 P.M. Tuesday, March 24, in the Playhouse on the Westminster Choir College campus in Princeton. Mr. Huybregts has given many concerts in Austria, Luxembourg, Germany, France, Great Britain, and Ireland, but this concert marks his first American appearance. Open to the public, free of charge.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES!! In the past few weeks, several new job opportunities have been submitted to the Field Education Office for the summer months. Particularly interesting are availabilities in Arizona, New Mexico and New Jersey shore. Any interested students should sign up for an interview with Mr. Ken Smith, Office of Field Education.

SPEER LIBRARY is in recipt of a new religious periodical indexing service: SUBJECT INDEX TO SELECT PERIODICAL LITERATURE. The aim of this monthly publication is to provide quick and current coverage of approximately 175 religious and theological journals. It is arranged by subjects, but also contains a listing of authors. To consult this material, see R/A-1.92/Sul 58, or the reference librarian.

TOWN HALL MEETING: On April 8th there will be the first annual Town Hall meeting to discuss matters of student concern. Everyone is urged to attend. Plan now. Auditorium, Campus Center. 7:00 P.M. For more information, contact Bob Bardeen, chairman, Grievance Committee.

NEW TITLE SALE AT TBA:	Sale Prices for week of March 23 only.	RETAIL	TBA SPECIAL
Finegan, Jack	THE ARCHEOLOGY OF THE NEW TESTAMENT	$20.00	$15.00
Hart, Ray L.	UNFINISHED MAN AND THE IMAGINATION	9.50	7.40
Jud, G.J., et al	EX-PASTORS: WHY MEN LEAVE THE PARISH MINISTRY	3.45	3.15
Morrison, Karl F.	TRADITION AND AUTHORITY IN THE WESTERN CHURCH (300-1140)	12.50	11.25
Thornton, Martin	THE FUNCTION OF THEOLOGY (Library of Practical Theology)	3.95	3.55
Vigeveno, H.S.	SINNERS ANONYMOUS	4.95	4.40

THE NEW ENGLISH BIBLE IS DUE THIS WEEK. They will be placed on the special sale table as soon as they arrive.

The Wineskin

nceton Theological Seminary VOL. IX, ISSUE NO. 2, March 27, 1970

MARCH 30 - APRIL 5

SPECIAL ISSUE

he Reverend Dr. Hans Küng, Professor of Fundamental Theology at the University of Tübingen, ill deliver the L. P. STONE LECTURES on March 30 - April 2, in Miller Chapel.

t is strongly recommended that Professor Küng's book THE CHURCH be read by all who plan to ttend the series, especially the four chapters which form the bases for the specific lec- ures. Copies may be purchased at the Bookstore. The schedule follows; the number preced- ng each event is the chapter upon which the talk is based.

CIII 1. "Members through Baptism." March 30, 7:45 P.M.
CIII 2. "United in the Fellowship of the Lord's Supper." March 31, 7:45 P.M.
DIII 2. "Forgiveness and Renewal as Continuing Aspects of the Life of the Church." (Discussion) April 1, 1:45 AND 7:45 P.M.
EII "Ecclesiastical Office as Ministry." April 2, 7:45 P.M.

---

pril 1. Chapel. "Celebration of Easter Joy" - Father Philip Morris, Ray Gora and Charles Wallace of Immaculate Conception Seminary, Darlington, New Jersey. 10:00 A.M.

pril 3. The Reverend Dr. Eduard Schweizer, Professor of New Testament at the University of Zürich, Switzerland, will be honored at a tea and reception in the Main Lounge of the Campus Center at 4:00 P.M. Following the reception, Dr. Schweizer will discuss various aspects of the New Testament.

---

nter-Seminary Movement: The New York Region of the Inter-Seminary Movement will hold its annual "Ecumenical Live-In" at Graymoor Friary, Peekskill, New York, April 8 - 10, 1970. The topic will be "Sacramental Theology and Its Relation to Ecumenism."

The four principal speakers will be:

Dr. Arlo Duba, Dean of Admissions, Princeton Theological Seminary - "A Protestant Understanding of the Eucharist."

The Reverend John Gallen, S.J., Professor of Liturgical Theology, Woodstock Seminary - "The Roman Catholic Understanding of the Eucharist."

= OVER, PLEASE =

The Right Reverend Alexander Schmemann, Dean, Saint Vladimir Orthodox Seminary - "The Orthodox Understanding of the Eucharist."

The Reverend Robert Wright, Professor of Liturgics and Patristic History, General Seminary - "The Anglican Understanding of the Eucharist."

You will live at the Friary and take your meals there for two days. Services of worship from the graditions represented at the conference will be held three times daily during the conference. There will be a one-hour lecture on each of the above topics, followed by small-group discussion. On Friday afternoon there will be a panel discussion, led by the four principal speakers, on problems and implications of inter-communion and other matters concerning the understanding of the position of each tradition represented at the "Live-In."

For further information, contact Jim Owens at 300 Alexander Hall, or call him at 924-3056. Registration should be made not later than April 3; no registrations can be accepted after April 6.

Notices to appear in regular issues of THE WINESKIN should be addressed to Jack Miller, Editor. They should be placed in the marked box in the basement of Stuart Hall and must be received not later than noon, Tuesday, in the week preceding the event to be publicized.

Cara Davis Smith, Editor pro tem.

The Wineskin

RINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY VOL. IX, Issue No 23, Apr 3,1970

April 6 - 13, 1970

DAY APRIL 6

Il Louis Lehmann: "The Bible and Modern derstanding of Word and Authority. Dr. mann, Professor of Systematic Theology, ion Seminary, New York, was formerly on faculties of Princeton Seminary and Har- d Divinity School. He is the author of giveness, Decisive Issue in Protestant ught, and Ethics in a Christian Context, well as many articles. Auspices, Biblical artment Colloquium. Main Lounge, Campus ter, 1:30 P.M. Open to the public.

IORS: Fittings now being taken for the tal of caps, gowns and hoods. Mr. Moore, nceton University Store, will be in Ste- son Lounge today, 1:30-4:30 P.M. (NOTE: iors who cannot see Mr. Moore today must tact him in the Sports Department of the versity Store.

USDAY, APRIL 7

pel: Sister Jean Ortenza, Sisters of St. eph. "A Celebration of Life." 10:00 A.M. ro Armonico Amsterdam, ensemble which fo- es on the Baroque era. Westminster Choir lege. Jaap Schroeder, violinist: lecture, stol Chapel, 11 A.M. Ensemble concert, stol Chapel, 8 P.M.

NESDAY, APRIL 8

pel: Reverend Bruce McLeod, preaching. ith to Follow." Minister of Westdale ted Church, Hamilton, Ontario, and Minister- ct of one of Ontario's most stragetic pul- is, Bloor Street United Church at the campus the University of Ontario. EXTENDED CHAPEL. 00 A.M.

IORS: Class picture, Chapel steps, 10:45

TOWN HALL MEETING: Presentation and discussion of Black Studies Program, Education Reform, Curriculum Review, Presidential Report, Viewpoint Task Force on Priorities, Professional Doctorate and Plunge. Meeting includes all students, staff, faculty and administration. Auditorium, Campus Center. 7:00 P.M.

THURSDAY, APRIL 9

Chapel: Don McKenzie, leader. "Alienation-Reconciliation." 10:00 A.M.

FRIDAY, APRIL 10

Chapel: Franklin Lakes Presbyterian Youth Fellowship. Paul Debenport, Youth Advisor. "Alienation-Reconcilation," a celebration with voices and music. 10:00 A.M.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., MEMORIAL LECTURE SERIES: Mr. Harold Cruse, "International Implications of the Black Liberation Movement." Author-in Residence at the University of Michigan and Chairman of that school's Afro-American Studies program, Mr. Cruse is the author of "Crisis of the Negro Intellectual" and "Rebellion or Revolution." His topics will be "Cultural Nationalism: Reform or Revolution" and "Black Nationalism and the Third World." 1:30 and 7:30 P.M., Miller Chapel.

SQUARE DANCE. Entire Seminary community, featuring last year's caller, Art Seele. Homemade refreshments. 75¢ per person. Partners would be helpful---Ya'll Come! Campus Center Auditorium. 8:15 P.M.

SUNDAY, APRIL 12

University Chapel. Dean Ernest Gordon, preaching. 11:00 A.M.

The Princeton Seminary Touring Choir will sing in the Chambersburg, Pa. Presbyterian Church of Falling Spring at 11:00 A.M., and in the Shippensberg, Pa. Presbyterian Church at 3:30 P.M., and in the Carlisle, Pa. Presbyterian Church at 7:15 P.M.

NOTICE

Dr. W.D. Davies' visit to Princeton Seminary, originally scheduled for March 9, has been rescheduled for Monday, May 11. He will speak on "The New Testament - Revelation, History and Authority" at 1:30 P.M. in the Main Lounge, Campus Center. Auspices: The Biblical Department Colloquium.

The North Carolina A. & T. State University Choir will present motets and anthems by Nathaniel Dett, John Work, George Walker and Decomier at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, 189 South Broad Street, Trenton, April 15, 8:00 P.M., in the Sanctuary. Featured will be Decomier's cantata about Harriet Tubman: "They Called Her Moses." The group will also perform an excerpt from the Congolese mass Missa Luba. Parking is available in the back parking yard of the Church.

Applications for the managership of the Theological Book Agency and for the Athletic Chairman will be accepted during April 1970 for academic year 1970-71. The stipend TBA manager is $1,600 per year; that of the Athletic Chairman is $800 per year. All applications should be in writing and should be forwarded to the Business Office, in care of W.E. Lawder.

The Student Association will sponsor a counseling forum on Thursday, April 16, at 7:45 P.M. The topic is "Christ and the Counseling Process." Panel members include Dr. Herbert Anderson of Princeton Seminary, Rev. Earl Jabay of the New Jersey Neuro-Psychiatric Institute and Dr. Armand Nicholi or the Harvard Medical School.

The Editorial Review Board for Student Publications is now accepting applications for the position of 1970-71 editor of VIEWPOINT. Applications may be turned in to any member of the Board on or before April 20, 1970. Applications should include: a critical estimate of past issues and editorial policy; concrete suggestions for the future of VIEWPOINT, past experience related to editing, and reasons for applying. For further information, contact Wayne Frey, current editor of VIEWPOINT. Applicants will be interviewed by the Board at a date to be posted later. Board members are Jim Cubie, Frank Fahnestock, Mr. Jim Andrews, Mr. David Crawford, Dr. Authur Adams, and Tom Porter (chairman).

This year Princeton Seminary is to have a golf team - the goal of which is to have fun playing, not to win. The first twelve students and/or faculty members to call Roger LaLane Rozeboom (924-9198) will constitute the team. Three free practice rounds are offered and one match with the Westminster Choir College is scheduled. Very little skill required to participate.

Joggers and Non-Joggers, reform! The Weightroom in the basement of the Seminary gym has been painted and furnished with "new" weights. The room is open all week from 7:00 A.M. to 11:00 P.M., except Sunday. Anyone interested in a planned work-out and lift-in should call Roger Rozeboom at 924-9198.

Students may pick up a SCHEDULE OF EXAMINATIONS in the Office of the Registrar.

The Wineskin

PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY VOL. IX, ISSUE NO. 24, APRIL 10, 1970

APRIL 13 - 19

NOTE: Father T. Paul Verghese, Bishop-Elect of the Syrian Orthodox Church of Malabar and Principal of the Syrian Orthodox Theological Seminary, Kottayam, Kerala, India, will be Preacher-in-Residence to Princeton Theological Seminary, April 13 - 18.

MONDAY, APRIL 13

Dr. Heinrich Ott, Professor of Systematic Theology, University of Basel: "The Hermeneutical and Personal Structure of Language." Part of course Theology as Hermeneutical Problem, Department of Theology. Speer Library, Room 202, 3:15 P.M. All students and faculty welcome

Dr. Don Liebert, Camden Branch, Rutgers - The State University: "Urban Problems and Political Powers in Camden, New Jersey." Dr. Liebert, a recent Th.D. graduate of Princeton Seminary, is an urban sociologist. He is well acquainted with urban ministries in Camden. Part of Urbanization and Social Change course. Speer Library, Room 201, 3:20 P.M. All students and faculty welcome.

Dean Henry Chadwick, Dean of Christ Church and Regis Professor of Divinity, Oxford University: "The Function of Authority in Christian Theology." Public Lecture. 101 McCormick Hall, Princeton University. 4:00 P.M.

Dr. Willem van Unnik, Professor of New Testament Exegesis, University of Utrecht: "Worthy Is the Lamb--the Background of Revelations 5." Main Lounge Campus Center, 7:45 P.M.

TUESDAY, APRIL 14

Chapel: Professor Geddes Hanson. 10 A.M.

Dr. van Unnik: "With All Those Who Call on the Name of the Lord." Main Lounge, Campus Center. 7:45 P.M.

Westminster Choir College Faculty Recital Series: Miss Lin Maxwell, mezzo-soprano; Walter Brennan, pianist. Playhouse, Westminster Choir College. 8:00 P.M.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15

Chapel: Father T. Paul Verghese. EXTENDED CHAPEL. 10:00 A.M.

JAMES J. REEB MEMORIAL LECTURE: Father Verghese. Miller Chapel. 7:45 P.M.

Sister Mary Byles, Visiting Fellow at Princeton Seminary: "South America--Continent of Hope and Despair." Public Lecture. Stuart Country Day School. 8:00 P.M.

North Carolina A & T State University Choir Concert: "They Called Her Moses" and "The Missa Luba." Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, 189 South Broad Street, Trenton. 8:00 P.M.

THURSDAY, APRIL 16

Chapel: The Reverend Charles Koen, Executive Director, The United Front of Cairo (Illinois). "New Perspectives in Black Ministry." 10:00 A.M.

Concert: Richard E. Frey, organist and composer, with a mixed choir of students from Westminster Choir College and Eastern Baptist Seminary. Miller Chapel. 1:35 P.M.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., LECTURE SERIES. The Reverend Charles Koen. Miller Chapel. 7:30 P.M. Auspices, Association of Black Seminarians.

FRIDAY, APRIL 17

Chapel: Mr. Peter Schreck, Th.M. candidate, and Mr. Craig Seitz, senior. 10:00 A.M.

Plattsburgh Choir in concert. Miller Chapel. 1:30 P.M.

SATURDAY, APRIL 18

TROILUS AND CRESSIDA, W. Shakespeare. McCarter Theater. 8:30 P.M.

SUNDAY, APRIL 19

University Chapel: Professor James H. Billington, preaching. 11:00 A.M.

The Princeton Seminary Touring Choir will sing at the Narberth, Pennsylvania, Presbyterian Church at 11 A.M.; in the Cedar Park Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at 4 P.M.; and in the Oreland, Pennsylvania, Presbyterian Church at 7:15 P.M.

NOTICES

The Student Commons is now looking for a MANAGER OF THE COMMONS for next school year. Interested students please call Kent Smith at 448-6628.

THE SUMMER LANGUAGE PROGRAM IN GREEK AND HEBREW begins July 16 (Thursday) and concludes September 9 (Wednesday). Successful completion of either program carries two course credits. Application forms may be secured in the office of Dr. Arlo Duba, 118 Hodge. For further information, contact Dr. Cullen Story, the Carriage House.

The Wineskin

PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY VOL. IX, ISSUE NO. 25, FRIDAY, APRIL 17,'70

APRIL 20 - 26

MONDAY, APRIL 20

The VIEWPOINT Task Force on Priorities petition drive begins in the Campus Center. 12:00 P.M. (See Note)

Jaroslav Pelikan, Steet Professor of Ecclesiastical History at Yale University, will speak on "Tradition and Authority in the History of Christian Doctrine." This is the fourth and final presentation of this year's Biblical Department Colloquium on "The Authority of the Bible in Our Time." Dr. Pelikan was formerly a professor at Concordia Seminary, Valparaiso University and the University of Chicago. His books include "The Preaching of Chrysostom," "The Christian Intellectual," and "The Finality of Jesus Christ in an Age of Universal History." Main Lounge, Campus Center. 1:30 P.M.

TUESDAY, APRIL 21

Chapel: The chapel services this week will attempt to survey the courts, both Biblical and contemporary, as instruments of justice and of injustice - with particular emphasis on the recent questionable court actions in Plainfield, New Jersey. This series of services has been planned by the Committee on Community Responsibility and will reflect their research. The first service will be: "The Prophets and Justice."

A Jewish-Christian Dialogue will convene at the Seminary's Center of Continuing Education April 21 - 24. The Dialogue will be led by Professor Seymour Siegel of Jewish Theological Seminary and Professor Christiaan Beker of PTS. Dr. Beker will present "The Nature of Jewish-Christian Dialogue," "Paul's Understanding of Human Existence," "Paul's Understanding of Human Existence Under Christ" and "Paul and Israel" for discussion. Dr. Siegel will speak on "The People of God and Chosenness," "The Law," "Sin and Repentance" and "The Jew and the Non-Jew." Dr. Jack Cooper, Director of the Center, will lead orientation and summary and evaluation sessions. Persons wishing to attend the Dialogue should contact Dr. Cooper.

Open Forum. Discussion concerning nominations and elections of students to the Board of Trustees. Campus Center. 7 P.M.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 22

Chapel: Dr. David Frost, member of the Plainfield Defense Committee: "Justice in Plainfield."

Earth Day program will be presented in the Playhouse on the campus of Westminster Choir College, as a part of the National Humanities Series. The program is free to the public and is entitled: "The Good Life: Man's Quest for Quality," led by Wallace Kaufman, professor of Creative Writing and English Literature at the University of North Carolina. 8:00 P.M.

THURSDAY, APRIL 23

Chapel: Members of the Association of Black Seminarians will present "Justice in a Black Society."

Organ Recital. Chapel. 1:35 - 2:05 P.M.

THURSDAY (CONT.)

"ECCLESIA," a simulation game designed to teach role functions of elders, deacons and trustees, and to stimulate awareness of ambiguous responsibilities and areas of cooperation within the political life of the church. In the Campus Center Auditorium. Limited to 30 players. Sign up in the Field Education Office, 101 Hodge Hall. 3:00 - 6:00 P.M.

FRIDAY, APRIL 24

Chapel: "Do Justly."

TROILUS AND CRESSIDA, by William Shakespeare. McCarter Theatre. 8:30 P.M.

SUNDAY, APRIL 26

University Chapel: Dr. James Shannon, preaching. 11:00 A.M.

The Princeton Seminary Touring Choir will sing in the Faith Presbyterian Church of Baltimore, Maryland at 11:00 A.M., and in the Deer Creek Harmony Presbyterian Church in Darlington, Md., at 4:00 P.M.

Trinity Church of Princeton presents "The Music of Georg Friedrich Handel," with the Trinity Choir of Men and Boys, orchestra, organ, harpsichords and guest soloists. Tickets are available through the Church Office in the mornings of April 20-24. Trinity Church, 33 Mercer Street. 7:30 P.M.

NOTICE

BRUCE HUNKER'S telephone number is 924-2367. Please use this number, not the one incorrectly given in the handbook.

The VIEWPOINT Task Force on Priorities will be conducting a petition drive Monday through Friday (April 20-24) in the Campus Center during the noon meal period. The petition requests the Board of Trustees to make various changes in the Seminary's investment policy and in the election of Trustees. Singing is open to all members of the Seminary Community.

T.B.A. New Arrival: Kasemann, Jesus Means Freedom, Fortress Press publication. $2.20.

Anyone wishing discount coupons for the rock musical Salvation should contact Will Ackles at 924-9332. The coupons are good through April 19 for all but Saturday evening performances.

The Wineskin

PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY VOL. IX, ISSUE 25, FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1970

APRIL 27 - MAY 3

MONDAY, APRIL 27

A multi-media creative worship service featuring the Sunshine Experience rock band will happen for seminary community and public. Miller Chapel. 12:55 P.M.

Dr. Michael N. Danielson, Associate Professor, Woodrow Wilson School of Public Affairs, will speak on "Suburbanization, Zoning, and Taxation in New Jersey." Dr. Danielson is an expert on urban and suburban sociology and government. Delivered as a part of the course Urvanization and Social Change with Dr. Dean Hoge. All interested persons are invited. Room 201, Library. 3:20 P.M.

Seniors: J.T. Cuthbertson, Inc., will have a pulpit gown showing for all seniors interested in buying robes for next year. Contacts should be made through Mr. A. Stucker. Stevenson Lounge, Campus Center. 1:00 - 4:00 P.M.

TUESDAY, APRIL 28

Chapel: Joel Crosby and James Slicer.
NOTE: All morning prayer this week will be according to the Anglican tradition.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29

Representatives from the Trenton Council of Churches will be on campus to interview students for a summer job. This may be a good opportunity for a married student who needs to locate in the Princeton Area during the summer months. Students interested for this position should contact Ken Smith in the Field Education Office.

Chapel: William Skudlarek, Frank Dunn, Peyton Craighill.

THEOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES ON AFRICA: Forum sponsored by the International Student Association. Jan Van Arkel (Republic of South Africa) and Timothy Njoya (Republic of Kenya). See last two issues of VIEWPOINT for background material. Main Lounge, Campus Center. 1:30 - 2:30 P.M.

THURSDAY, APRIL 30

Chapel: Karlfried Froehlich, John Yates, S T Kimbrough, Jr.

Organ Recital: Miss Cynthia Maars of the Westminster Choir College. Miller Chapel 1:35 - 2:05 P.M.

The Westminster Chamber Ensemble (orchestra and chorus) of Westminster Choir College will give its premier performance in a concert open to the public. Bristol Chapel, Westminster Choir College. 8:00 P.M.

FRIDAY, MAY 1

Chapel: Aaron Carland, James Wilson, Paul Cameron.

SUNDAY, MAY 2

University Chapel: Dean Ernest Gordon, preaching. 11:00 A.M.

The Princeton Seminary Touring Choir will sing in the Northminster Presbyterian Church of Endwell, New York, at 9:15 and 11:15 A.M. and in the First Presbyterian Church of Chester, New York at 4:30 P.M.

NOTICE

From the Office of Professional Studies: Placement examinations to secure waiver of either or both of the "orientation" courses under the new sequences in the Biblical Department will be offered early in the spring reading period. Students who desire to take one or both tests should record their intention in the Office of Professional Studies. By taking a spring examination it will be possible for the student to pre-register for his fall courses with a full knowledge of the requirements to be met. Similar examinations will be offered during registration week in September. Each exam will be two hours in length and will emphasize the substantive information that ordinarily would be covered in an introductory survey course. Consult the bulletin board for further information.

The Princeton Hospital Aid Committee will hold its spring rummage sale for the benefit of the Princeton Hospital on April 27, 28, 29 and 30 at the Harrison Street firehouse. Donations of articles for sale may be left at the firehouse on Monday, April 27 from 9:00 A.M. until 5:00 P.M. and on Tuesday from 9:00 A.M. until noon.

THE THEOLOGICAL BOOK AGENCY INSANELY ANNOUNCES A GIGANTIC COMMENTARY AND MISCELLANY SALE!

One week only: April 27 - May 1

Yearend Overstock, Prices Slashed 30 - 40% off List Price on Many Titles on Special Tables.
10% off T.B.A. Price (20 - 30% off List) On Commentaries on the Central Table.
5% off T.B.A. Price On All Shelved Commentaries and Church and Society Titles

	LIST	T.B.A.	SPECIAL
Set of Kittels (6 Volumes)	$129.00	$89.35	$80.00
Vol. 6 of Kittel	22.50	15.75	14.95
Set of Interpreter's Bible (12 Volumes)	90.00	69.00	63.00
Set of Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible (4 Volumes)	45.00	32.50	30.00

SEE The Dime-a-Dip Table
The Dollar-a-Dive Table

ALSO watch for the senior sale - Monday, May 4 through Friday, May 15.
5% off any item in the store, plus special bargain prices on special tables.

Activities intended for publication in the WINESKIN must be turned into the appropriate box in the basement of Stuart Hall no later than Tuesday noon of the week preceding the activity. Editor: Jack S. Miller, 921-6752.

The Wineskin

RINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY VOL. IX, ISSUE NO. 26, FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1970

MAY 4 - 10

HE QUAKER EXPERIENCE OF WORSHIP IS TO BE OBSERVED IN MILLER CHAPEL IN THE MORNINGS OF MAY AND 6, 12 AND 13. EACH SERVICE IS TO BE LED BY THE PRINCETON MEETING OF THE SOCIETY OF RIENDS.

JESDAY, MAY 5

hapel: Quaker Worship with Mr. Herrymon aurer, former clerk of the Princeton eeting, and Mrs. Raymond (Alice) Male. 0:00 A.M.

EDNESDAY, MAY 6

hapel: Quaker Worship with Mr. Herrymon aurer and Mrs. Dorris Honig. 8:30 A.M.

HURSDAY, MAY 7

hapel: ASCENSION DAY. Celebration of ord's Supper, using the liturgy of the onsultation on Church Union. Mr. awrence Stookey, Mr. Herbert Anderson, r. Arlo Duba. 8:30 A.M.

rgan Recital: Miss Valerie Nichols, estminster Choir College. Miller Chapel. :35 - 2:05 P.M.

Seminary Picnic!! Students, faculty and staff are encouraged to attend the community picnic, including games of all sorts, entertainment and food. Children under 12 will be served free while nonboarders are requested to pay $1.00 per person. Baseball and volleyball games will begin at 3:30. Marquand Park. Picnic served at 5:30 P.M.

Opening of the PJ&B production "The Most Happy Fella," by Frank Loesser. Princeton Seminary's own S T Kimbrough will sing the title role. McCarter Theatre. 7:30 P.M.

FRIDAY, MAY 8

Chapel: Rejoice Group. Kent Smith, leader. 8:30 A.M.

"The Most Happy Fella." McCarter. 8:30 P.M.

Folk-Rock Concert. Open to the public, performed for the benefit of the Erdman Hall Fund, a $2.00 donation is requested. Principal performers will be Rev. Robert Jacks of the Seminary's Speech Department, and Donald Mackenzie, Jr., a Senior in the BD program. They will be assisted by Allen Brindisi, Paul Debenport and Al Lindahl, Middler students. Guitarists include Drew Nettinga, Junior and Kent Smith, Senior. Tickets may be obtained in advance from the Public Relations Office, Carriage House, or at the Reception Desk, Administration Building. Concert to be given in the Auditorium, Campus Center. 8:30 P.M.

SATURDAY, MAY 9

"The Most Happy Fella." McCarter Theatre. 2:30 and 8:30 P.M.

SUNDAY, MAY 10

University Chapel: A service of music and Dean Ernest Gordon. 11:00 A.M.

The Princeton Seminary Choir will sing in the First Presbyterian Church of Dunnellen, N.J. at 9:15 and 11:00 A.M., and in the First Presbyterian Church of Avenel, N.J. at 4:30P.M.

NOTICE

Reigner Reading Room books are due within the next two weeks. Names of signees (esp. of overdue books) will then be turned over to the Treasurer's Office so that the fines will be added to their bills.

The Springdale Golf Club has for many years extended to members of the Seminary community the privilege of playing their course. The arrival of Spring has brought out the usual quota of golfers, and numbers of people seeking other forms of recreation. The Board of Governors of the golf club has asked us to remind users that the course, while owned by Princeton University, "is leased exclusively to Springdale Golf Club on the condition that it be maintained and operated only as a private golf club and for no other purpose. The use of the golf course for strolling, jogging, picnicking, lounging and other such activities is prohibited both by the terms of the lease and by the rules of our club. In addition, there is the danger of a serious injury from a flying golf ball."

THE THEOLOGICAL BOOK AGENCY JOYOUSLY ANNOUNCES THEIR ANNUAL LAST CHANCE SENIOR SALE!!
Monday, May 4 - Friday, May 15

For Seniors and Graduating Students: 5% off TBA prices on any item in the store
10% off TBA prices on any title in Church and Society and Ecumenics and Mission

For all Students: Prices slashed 20% - 40% off LIST Price on overstock and SPECIAL titles on the Central Display Tables.
BARGAIN price on Set of Interpreters Bible (12 vols.) List: $90.00
Special Sale: $63.00
Special Prices on many new (still arriving) titles.

Existing titles include:
THE STUDENT AS NIGGER.....Jerry Farber
LOVE AND WILL.....Rollo May
EDUCATION AND ECSTASY.....George B. Leonard
SELF AND OTHERS.....R.D. Laing
TEACHING AS A SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITY..N. Postman & C. Weingartner

Several new items have been added to the Dollar-a-Dive Table, and to the Dime-a-Dip Table.

Special Note from TBA: SENIORS MAY CHARGE up to $75.00, BUT remember that all accounts must be paid in full before graduation.
Books may not be set aside for later purchase; special orders and mail order requests on sale items will be refused.

TBA Store Hours AFTER May 10: Mon - Wed - Fri 2:00 - 3:30 P.M.
TBA Store Hours AFTER May 24: Mon - Wed (only)2:00 - 4:00 P.M.

P.S. "Adlai E. Stevenson: A Crisis of Conscience - a personal memoir" is now available in the Book Store. The author, the Rev. Dr. Robert Gardner Andrus, has given Princeton Seminary the original documents upon which the book is based and recently donated a room in Speer Library to the Seminary in honor of his father.

All activities intended for publication in WINESKIN must be turned into the appropriate box in the basement of Stuart Hall no later than noon on Tuesday preceding the week of the activity. Editor: Jack Miller, 921-6752.